

Active Retirement Community Shopping Check List

First Impressions

- Ample guest parking close to front entry door.
- Well maintained grounds, landscaping and building exterior.
- Accessible secured front door.
- Décor was attractive and welcoming.
- Friendly staff interacted with you throughout the building.
- Residents seemed happy and were enjoying the community rooms.
- Tour and appointment were performed by knowledgeable staff member.
- Community appearance is clean, free of odor, in good repair and comfortable temperature.
- Building size and layout were easy to navigate, not too big and overwhelming.
- Hallways were wide, had handrails and were attractively appointed.
- Residents were out and about enjoying the community rooms, visiting with staff.
- Community is well known and respected.
- Ample natural lighting, open and inviting building.

Services and Lifestyle

- Handicap accessible building.
- Wide hallways with handrails.
- Two elevators.
- Optional dinner program available featuring several entrees each evening.
- Pleasant great room that can be reserved and used for private parties at no additional charge.
- Private dining room that can be reserved and used for private parties at no additional charge.